

JACOB'S WELL @ Minnehaha Falls!

Sunday Paper

30 July 2017

Enjoy our gathering in the park today...

Next Sunday - join us at Field Middle School, 4645 4th Ave S, Minneapolis

Welcome! Your View Of Space

Welcome to Minnehaha Falls! What a beautiful place to be Jacob's Well. Did you know that the only reason we can enjoy this space today is a leader who broke down the expectation boxes of people more than 100 years ago? Theodore Wirth came to Minneapolis in 1904 with wild ideas that became parks and changed everything. Question: What opportunities surround you right now that you have never recognized because you only see what others see? It's time to take a look.

What to expect today...

Have a cup of coffee from the welcome tent and take a seat. We're glad you're here.

Songs—sing along!

Welcome & Say Hi

Message—Greg Meyer

Offering—Thank You!

Music & Closing

After our gathering...

Join us at the base of the Falls for Mateo's baptism.

Stick around for the Taco Bar!

Thanks for donating today's coffee!

Also today...

We're glad you're here! There is a lot to learn, enjoy and wonder about with your friends and family in our gathering and in the park today. Find a kids table with stuff just for you under the tent. Enjoy!

Did you plug the parking meter? You may get ticketed if not. If you need quarters, stop by the welcome tent, and we'll spot you a few!

Offering. Jacob's Well takes an offering because we believe in what God is doing among us and it takes money to do it. We are committed to being open and responsible with our shared resources. Together our generosity can make amazing things happen—including inside us! Thanks.

Instead of being a once a week obligation, we want our time together to awaken who you are – you know, your real selves. Honest, thinking, relevant and casual gatherings are designed to impact the lives we live.

Mateo Enrique Pliego is baptized today. Thank you to his parents and his sponsors for sharing him with Jacob's Well and the world! His parents are Kali Pliego & Felix Pliego Mejia, and his Sponsors are Marisol & Jose Quiñones. We welcome Mateo and join with him in the life-giving waters of God's unconditional love.

What we do...

Institutionally, not much. That's because we try to support our community in being Jacob's Well in their neighborhoods. We gather weekly, help everyone connect in a smaller setting and support people in their individual journeys of discovering God (including kids!). We also focus on supporting people in some of the toughest areas to be healthy (relationships and finances) and try to help everyone discover a ministry in the church and a mission beyond it. You can get a taste of how we do stuff by visiting www.jacobs-well/GroupLife and www.jacobs-well.net/Leftovers.

Coming Up...

Next Sunday: Godflix begins

God isn't so little that God can only be found in the Bible, but so big that God-stuff pops out everywhere. Like in movies! This is our 11th year of exploring current movies for messages that stretch our hearts and minds. Sing, Arrival, Moana, and Hidden Figures are up to bat this August. Watch the movies ahead of time and come ready to dig in with us, or come and be surprised (we'll try to avoid spoilers, but no guarantees.)

Get to Know Jacob's Well!

New to Jacob's Well or been around a while and want to help share it? Come get to know people, learn more about the Jacob's Well story and ask questions. We'll talk about the whys and some hows of Jacob's Well and share some pizza in a Jacob's Well home. A date and location will be determined soon! Email melissa@jacobs-well.net if you are interested in attending.

Thanks for being Jacob's Well!

You've been waiting there, waiting for the right time Looking for a perfect rhyme - never comes around It is all here, it is all now - open up your eyes and look around It'll go, it'll go

If there's anything that holds you down, just forget it
Keeping your feet on the ground, don't you let it

Let it go

It is all here, It is all now
Open up your eyes and look around Let it go, let it go

Typical by Paul Meany & Dave MUTEMATH © 2006 Warner Bros. Records Inc.

Come on, can't I dream for one day
There's nothing that can't be done

But how long should it take somebody
Before they can be someone?

'Cause I know there's got to be another level
Somewhere closer to the other side
And I'm feeling like it's now or never
Can I break the spell of the typical?

I've lived through my share of misfortune
And I've worked in the blazing sun

Because it's dragging me down I'd like to know about when
When does it all turn around?

Walking Lightly by Junip (José González, Tobias Winterkorn and Elias Araya)

We're all walking lightly
We're all walking lightly
Let this moment last
Could be gone so fast
Keep walking lightly

We're all walking lightly, we're all

Be The Song by Foy Vance. © Gingerbread Man Records 2016

When nightmares come, keep you awake
babe close your eyes, I'll take the weight but I won't speak, I will refrain and be the song, just be the song.
when inner scars, show on your face and darkness hides, your sense of place
well I won't speak, I will refrain and be the song, just be the song

Flow down all my mountains, darlin' fill my valleys

and when you run far from my eyes

then I will come in dead of night
but I won't speak till mornin' light
I'll be the song, just be the song

To the Great Unknown by Craig Minowa. 2015 Earthology/ The Rebel Group.

Called your name, and you formed out of the emptiness Called your name, and I swear this time I'll be my best Called your name, and I felt home sweet home *building May you find grace when overtaken by the tempest May you find humor in the cynic and the pessimist

May you find faith in the Great Unknown

Lay it all down in a calm, safe space
And if the dream doesn't come you just wait
Lay it all down in a calm, safe space
And if the dream doesn't come you just wait, you just wait

We were made to walk through fire in our dance shoes
We were made to sail upon the meteors
We were made to love the heck out of our bones
God gave us words, they were "I love you, please, and thank you"
God gave us thirst, and it's a hunger for the universe

Oh, no, no, no. I'll never let you go Sometimes this life's a lonely road, but you gotta find it on your own So build a happy ship, 'cause this livin' is a trip
You gotta sing the kind of song that you like singing

To the Great Unknown, to the Great Unknown
God gave you brains, now don't go and drown in your own thoughts
God gave you hands so you could pick up your broken pieces
God gave you feet so you can find your own way home
Let's run away, just know your troubles tend to follow
Pack your bags, just know that everything here's borrowed
The pathmaker is a trickster, so make your own damn road
